Beneficiary Designation Instructions and Information

Political Subdivision Voluntary Supplemental Benefits (VSB) Life and AD&D

This form names the people you want to receive the Supplemental Life or Accidental Death & Dismemberment insurances you may have elected in the event of your death. It may also be used to change those names at any time. You are responsible for this form being received by the Division of Retirement and Benefits. Bring or mail the completed form directly to this office.

Whom Can You Name as Beneficiary?

You can choose:

- A living person.
- An institution.
- Your estate.
- A trust.
- Any combination of these options.

Primary Versus Secondary Beneficiaries

- Primary beneficiaries are “first in line” to receive benefits in the event of your death. All primary beneficiaries share equally, unless otherwise noted on the form.
- Secondary beneficiaries only receive benefits in the event all primary beneficiaries die before or simultaneously with the member. All secondary beneficiaries share equally, unless otherwise noted on the form.

Information to Provide

Each time you complete a new form, it is important you provide the full legal name, address, relationship, date of birth and Social Security number of each individual person (or taxpayer identification number (TIN) of each institution) you designate. You must also designate whether the beneficiary is primary or secondary. Each piece of information helps ensure the named beneficiary is located and the proper person or institution receives the correct distribution.

Designating an Institution as Beneficiary

To name an institution (charity, church, etc.), please provide all of the information requested in Parts 2 and/or 3.

Designating a Trust as Beneficiary

To designate a trust as beneficiary, you should provide the name of the trust and the date the trust was created in the space provided for naming a beneficiary. Please also provide a copy of the Memorandum of Trust with your beneficiary designation.

Designating a Minor as Beneficiary

A minor can be named as your beneficiary. When no guardian has been named, and the amount the minor will receive is more than $5,000, payment is guided by the Alaska Uniform Transfers to Minors Act. The Alaska Uniform Transfers to Minors Act, Alaska Statute 13.46.010-999, permits transfers of property and money to a person court-appointed as a guardian for a minor. The custodian must obtain a guardianship prior to payment of the funds. This is true even if the custodian is the parent or legal guardian of the minor.

Naming Additional Beneficiaries

If you need to name more beneficiaries than space allows on this form, use an Additional Beneficiary Designation page. This page must be received with your completed Beneficiary Designation form to be valid. You can download an additional page at Alaska.gov/drb or contact the Division to receive one by mail.

NOTICE

BENEFICIARY REVOCATION BY DISSOLUTION, DIVORCE, OR ANNULMENT:

AS 13.12.804 provides that a dissolution, divorce, or annulment, as it relates to beneficiary designations:

- Revokes any revocable “disposition or appointment of property,” made to a former spouse.
- Revokes the beneficiary designation of a former spouse’s family member(s).

Each time you complete a beneficiary form, it cancels all prior beneficiary designations for these death benefits. Your designations do not become effective until this form is signed and received by your employer.
